

American Angus Association Regional Manager Internship
Application Deadline 05/01/2021

The American Angus Association is offering a regional manager internship this fall designed to enhance a student's abilities to build effective relationships, craft a promotional strategy and learn about the Angus business and cattle industry. From assisting with herd visits to securing advertising in the Angus Journal and Angus Beef Bulletin, to providing insight to producers and more, the regional manager intern will gain valuable hands-on, real-world experience in the Angus business. Applicants should have a basic understanding of the cattle industry, be eager to learn and willing to travel.

College juniors or seniors studying animal science, agricultural business or other agricultural-related majors are encouraged to apply. Candidates should be outgoing, able to work well with all types of people and a self-starter. The internship begins in September and extends through early December and is based out of the American Angus Association headquarters in St. Joseph, Mo.

Students interested in applying should submit a cover letter and résumé to careers@angus.org by May 1, 2021. Visit angus.org/careers for all internship descriptions and requirements.
